DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

Claims 14,17,18,20,23,26,27,28,30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Maupin (patent No. 6,154,832, submitted by applicant).

Maupin taught the invention as claimed including a data processing ("DP") system comprising:

- a) General purpose (non-interrupt) register set (e.g., see col. 2, lines 31-39);
- b) Plurality of shadow register sets each having a plurality of registers that are addressable by the instructions (e.g., see col. 2, lines 31-39 and col. 6, lines 3-41);
- c) Shadow set mapping logic, coupled to the general purpose register set and the plurality of shadow register sets, for selecting one of the plurality of shadow register sets to be addressable by the instructions upon receipt of one of the plurality of interrupts (e.g., see col., 5, line 45-col. 6, line 41).

As per claims 17,18,20, 30 Maupin also taught a vector generator coupled to the shadow set mapping logic for receiving the interrupts and for each of the interrupts selecting a corresponding one of the plurality of interrupt routines using interrupt vector corresponding to the interrupt routine (e.g., see col. 5, line 45-col. 6, line 65).

As to the selecting of register sets using exception vectors (claims 20,23,26,27) Maupin taught the vector selecting register set (selecting between at least three register sets) using the pointer stored in the programmable task ID registers that correspond to exception routines (e.g., see col. 5, line 56-col. 6, line 28). As per claim 28 where the elements of the system are claims as program code, the Maupin implementation provides an equivalent for the claimed invention as detailed above.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 15,16,19,21,22,24,25,29 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 1-13, and 31-33 are allowed.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Erramoun (patent No. 5,603,035) disclosed a programmable interrupt controller, interrupt system and interrupt control process (e.g., see abstract).

Nishimura (patent No. 6,223,279) disclosed a microcomputer having a dedicated address bus and dedicated data bus for transferring register bank data to and from an on-line ram (e.g., see abstract).

Samra (patent No. 6,470,435) disclosed a dual state rename recovery using register usage (e.g., see abstract).

Kikinis (patent No. 5,797,036) disclosed a system that prepares a master map portraying location of devices relative to bus interface circuits (e.g., see abstract).

Koino (patent No. 5,615,348) disclosed a microprocessor with a register bank architecture (e.g., see abstract).

Thomas (patent No. 5,386,563) disclosed a register substitution during exception processing (e.g., see abstract).

Fairchild (patent no. 4,296,470) disclosed a link register storage and restore system for use in an instruction pre-fetch microprocessor interrupt system (e.g., see abstract).
